

LEE RADFORD

Shareholder

BIOGRAPHY

Lee Radford is a shareholder with the law firm of Parsons Behle & Latimer in Idaho Falls. Mr. Radford focuses his practice on helping businesses succeed and prosper in Idaho's legal environment. He also represents these companies in litigation designed to achieve their business objectives.

Mr. Radford's practice focuses on growing successful business enterprises. This includes experience in corporate formation and organization, real estate development, land use planning and permitting, mergers and acquisitions, commercial leasing, health law, and property tax issues.

He is also focused on helping companies choose Idaho as the best place to locate new operations and facilities. He has extensive experience with the Idaho urban renewal laws and tax increment financing. He is often involved with local Idaho municipalities and counties in bringing new business to Idaho.

Mr. Radford's practice deals with many of Idaho's principal industries, including agriculture, science, health care, and real estate. Mr. Radford's practice includes representing companies in disputes regarding employment, competition, purchasing, construction, health law compliance, and creditor's rights. He assists businesses in resolving disagreements among owners, disputes involving commercial contracts, and litigation involving design and construction issues. He has also helped many families in connection with business succession disputes.

Mr. Radford also represents companies dealing with the environmental effects of industrial operations, including litigation regarding environmental clean-up efforts and the health effects of asbestos and other toxic and radioactive substances.
