

JAMESON S. RAMMELL

Associate

BIOGRAPHY

Jameson S. Rammell is a member of the Litigation, Trials & Appeals practice group. Born and raised in Rexburg, Mr. Rammell is pleased to work in Southeast Idaho and serve the community where he grew up.

Mr. Rammell attended the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University where he graduated magna cum laude and was elected to the Order of the Coif. During law school, he was named the Truman Young Prosecutorial Fellow. As the Truman Young Fellow, he spent a year working with the City of Phoenix Prosecutor's Office, the Maricopa County Prosecutor's Office, the Arizona Attorney General's Office and the United States Attorney's Office. He handled numerous criminal trials, including felony jury trials and authored briefs submitted to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

Following law school, Mr. Rammell clerked for the Honorable David C. Nye Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Idaho. Pursuant to his duties, Mr. Rammell worked closely with Judge Nye as he presided over complex civil litigation matters. He reviewed hundreds of briefs, regularly helped Judge Nye prepare for hearings and trials and gained a much deeper understanding of the litigation process.
