

COVID-19

Due to concerns about the outbreak of COVID-19, courts and agencies may experience operational changes. We are monitoring the situation and will post any information relating to court closures and/or modified deadlines below. We will continue to update this information as it becomes available. However, please note that the information provided may not be the latest due to the quickly changing situation. Although every effort has been made to provide complete and accurate information, Aderant makes no warranties, express or implied, or representations as to the accuracy of this content. Aderant assumes no liability or responsibility for any error or omissions in the information contained herein.

Please note: For information about whether deadlines for specific cases are impacted by these operational changes, we recommend you contact the appropriate authority (i.e. clerk or judge) directly. Notably, many courts and judges have suspended or restricted paper submissions, including courtesy hard copies of filed documents, absent undue hardship.

Jurisdiction	Information	Last Updated
Supreme Court	Out of concern for the health and safety of the public and Supreme Court employees, the Supreme Court Building will be closed to the public from 4:30 p.m. on March 12, 2020, until further notice. The Building will remain open for official business. Although case filing deadlines have not been extended generally under Rule 30.1, the Court has issued an order addressing the extension of many filing deadlines. Link	3/19/20
